Dear Red:

It is good to know that your general reaction to my request for the services of [ ] was positive, and that you believe it important both to support intragovernment enterprises and to give your own people a broader exposure to Government operations. I will use this knowledge in the future.

25X1

I understand completely the problems that would arise if you were to release [ ] and therefore am quite willing to withdraw my request for his services for the next year.

25X1

Sincerely,

Don
